

PRESS RELEASE

Annual party dedicated to the employees of the pharmaceutical company, Remedica Ltd.

A spectacular, fun-filled evening full of surprises and memorable moments was organised with great success by Remedica, a Cypriot pharmaceutical company, on the occasion of New Year's Eve on the 5th of January 2019, at Monte Caputo in Limassol, with more than 1,000 participants.

The event was attended among other distinguished guests, by the President of the Cyprus House of Representatives, the Cyprus Minister of Foreign Affairs, members of the parliament, the Deputy Chief of Police, notable guests and associates and the company staff.

In his welcoming address, Dr Michael Neoptolemos, Managing Director of Remedica, thanked all the staff for the impressive and unprecedented results that the company presented for the financial year that passed and pointed out that the employees of the company are also its biggest asset. The pharmaceutical sector is one that has evolved through a highly private initiative and currently holds 35% of the total Cyprus exports, making it the largest export product with a strong growth rate and a robust contribution to the welfare of the country.

The President of the Cyprus House of Representatives, Mr Demetris Syllouris congratulated Remedica on both its financial performance and its social work in a vast range of areas and stated that Cyprus can become an industrial centre of development for the wider region.

During the evening, the Greek pharmaceutical company Pharos was honoured for being a distinguished collaborator of Remedica for over 13 years as well as the employees with over 20 years of service in the company.

The welcoming speeches were followed by the traditional cutting of the New Year cake by the President of the Cyprus House of Representatives and the musical programme was inaugurated by the world-renowned dance group of the "Arthur Murray" school and culminated with the magical performance of Michalis Hatzigiannis and Dimitris Mpasias.
